Welcome Marcians !

Have you ever wondered

- Where your fellow classmates are.
- Who's sitting in the chair you sat in at school.
- Has the chair survived.
- Has your 100m record been broken.
- Do they still have a sports house called 'Tugmans'.
- Are any of your teachers still teaching.
- Is there anyone in New York City that went to St Marks, Mbabane, Swaziland.
- Am I the only one who didn't get to University.
- Are any of my friends HIV.
- Does anyone need a helping hand.

John O'Shea the leader of our fundraising campaign ended an email recently with the words 'us Marcians stick together'. I think that's a good Motto for our Alumni site !!

Martin Dlamini, member of the high school PTA, mentioned that we ALL need to work together to keep the school progressing forwards. Buildings need to be rebuilt and improved on.

In a report written by Principal Nxumalo it mentions the number of successful past students around the globe.

Successful people such as Patrice Motsepe, Richard Esterhuizen, Wakhile Mkhonza, Phuthuma Nhleko, Alan Whiteside, Sibusiso Vilane, and many more found when surfing the net.

Our school is nearly 100 years old having started in 1908 with just FOUR pupils - and the teacher had to fetch them on horseback !! Today there are over TWO THOUSAND students eagerly getting to school on their own!!

Through our Alumni website we hope to continue reaching more and more 'Marcians' and bringing them back into the 'family fold'.

Please email those you are still in contact with and ask them to visit the school alumni site, to read John's blog and support St Marks.
